

ASSOCIATE DIRECTOR, REVENUE SERVICES (TAXATION)

Position acts as the Assistant Tax Administrator within the Division of Taxation for the State of Rhode Island. Primary duties are to provide administrative and executive assistance to the Tax Administrator in the exercise of his/her powers and duties relating to the assessment and collection of state tax revenues. This position has direct supervision of three operational sections:

- Field Audit Services,
- Office Audit and Discovery, and
- Special Investigation Unit.

Other duties include, but are not limited to, the following:

- Tracks and analyzes proposed and enacted federal and state legislation to measure the impact on the State of Rhode Island and any operational impact to the Division of Taxation,
- Assists in drafting tax legislation,
- Serves as the Division of Taxation's liaison with the Streamline Sales Tax Governing Board and as a delegate to the Streamline Sales Tax State and Local Advisory Council,
- Oversees the Division of Taxation's Voluntary Disclosure Program,
- Drafts Declaratory and Letter Rulings issued by the Division of Taxation,
- Assists in drafting new and revised tax regulations, and
- Serves on the Division of Taxation's Steering Committee for the new integrated tax system (State Tax Accounting and Revenue System – STAARS).

For more information and to apply, please visit:

<http://agency.governmentjobs.com/rhodeisland/default.cfm>